We are excited to advertise the following position:

WHAM ASSISTANT, PART-TIME - RENT

Job Title: WHAM Assistant - Part-Time

Salary: £955 per week (pro rata), across a 48-hour working week, eight performances per week. Includes bank holiday pay.

Hours: Part-Time. 24 hours (3 days) a week + cover team sickness and holiday when necessary

Artform: Theatre

Role: Technical & Production

Contract: SOLT BECTU Contract – Part-Time.

Closing Date: Thursday 5th November, 5pm

Location: Tom Stoppard Theatre, London

Length of Engagement: Start ASAP until 26th September 2027

Brief Description of Duties:

Chris Harper Productions & Sonia Friedman Productions are seeking applications for an experienced WHAM Assistant – Part-Time to work on the West End production of RENT.

We are seeking applications from individuals of all backgrounds for the position.

Responsibilities include working as part of the team in the maintenance, repair and dressing of wigs and hair on the production as well as make-up requirements, to maintain the look of the production as designed. Other responsibilities include dressing performers prior to and during rehearsals and performances and other performance-related activities, working as part of an efficient and successful department and liaison with all other departments on the production and associated personnel.

Candidates will require hands-on professional experience with an emphasis on wigs and hairdressing, make-up and other related disciplines, the ability to work under pressure and within a team and good interpersonal and communication skills, as well as strong organizational and time management qualities. Desirable skills include experience in wig-knotting and/or barbering skills, experience working with textured hair.

This position will cover a drag/feminisation makeup so previous skill in theatrical/drag/high fashion makeup is necessary. Please send examples of makeup work when applying.

We are committed to a workplace that embraces diversity and inclusion.

Performances are typically Monday to Saturday evenings with matinee performances on Friday and Saturday.

Please note all applicants must have the right to work in the UK.

To apply, please send your CV and cover letter to jobs@chrisharperproductions.com.
Please send examples of makeup work when applying.